OF THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION
127 NINTH AVENUE, NORTH • NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE 37203

JAMES L. SULLIVAN, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY-TREASURER

Welcome to the Southern Baptist Music Leadership Conference!

This year is the most strategic of all the years of Southern Baptist music program progress. The past two decades have witnessed steady growth and progressive development. Now, we enter a new and challenging decade of advance. New programs, new administrative techniques, a new grouping-grading plan, new organizational manuals, new magazines and recordings, and a vast variety of new music open doors of opportunity, enlistment, and outreach we surely must enter. Never has music been so popular and meaningful in our churches and society as it is today. We are challenged as responsible musicians to enlarge our vision, expand our horizons, and enthuse the constituency of our churches to reach their potential of musical involvement.

The wide diversity of courses, choirs, conferences, and special interest opportunities available to you this year is extensive and challenging. Training music leaders is the principal aim of the week. Select the schedule suited to your needs. By reading the descriptions of the various offerings, you will be able to plan a helpful activity for each period. There are six periods in the day in addition to the evening services.

The performance of the choral drama, The Nazarene, on Tuesday evening and the oratorio, The Conversion of St. Paul, on Wednesday morning will be significant events. Membership in these choirs is by audition. Please see the opposite page for information on these and other auditions and report to the scheduled place on time.

Each evening, new choral music will be premiered. Our pastor will be bringing inspirational messages. The congregational singing will be an experience each of us will long remember.

We are glad you came this year. Extensive plans have been made for you. Please take advantage of the many musical opportunities and then return home with a determination to meet the new challenges of the 70's.

Welcome!

W. Hines Sims
Conference Director
